an “A- VIII” Excellent Insurance Company

Following guidance from local and state government as well as the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, Palomar continues to employ its work from home policy, which has been effective since Monday, March 16th. In addition, Palomar implemented the following:

It is important to note that as a company with a focus on managing catastrophic risk, maintaining and executing a comprehensive Business Continuity Plan is a core tenant of Palomar’s operations. The Company is pleased to report it has successfully implemented its Business Continuity Plan, remains actively open for business and is well-positioned to offer continuity as we all navigate this evolving scenario. Palomar intends to remain fully operational through remote access to all its systems and stands ready to provide “business as usual” service to business partners and policyholders.
